This year, the Mass will have special emphasis on community groups and organisations within our parish area. A representative of each organisation will carry a plaquard with the name of their group. A flyer with contact details of all organisations will be available afterwards in St. John's Centre, for anyone who may wish to join any of these groups or find out more information. All those living in and around the Knock area, and those involved in community groups, are invited to attend. We look forward to seeing you there!
